

YHO CONSTITUTION

I. BASIC PROVISIONS

Article 1

- 1.1. The official name of the organization shall be International Youth Health Organization, also referred to hereinafter as: YHO.
- 1.2. The official abbreviation shall be: YHO.
- 1.3. YHO is an international voluntary network organization, whose members are youth associations, youth networks, and through them, individuals.
- 1.4. YHO works towards assuring wellbeing of young people, through promotion of healthy lifestyle, prevention of and adaptation to non-communicable diseases, including mental health, prevention and reduction of harm due to unhealthy life choices and creation of a positive environment for young people to develop to their full potential.
- 1.5. It develops and supports evidence-based and effective policies to assure healthy lifestyles and environments for young people.
- 1.6. This is achieved through building capacity of youth organizations on:
 - a. research on and with young people,
 - b. advocacy of effective and comprehensive policies and
 - c. attitudes and behavioural changes that would improve young people's health and wellbeing.

Article 2

- 2.1. YHO is a nongovernmental, independent, voluntary, non-partisan and non-profit organization, working for public interest.
- 2.2. YHO is not associated in any way with alcohol, tobacco, nutrition, pharmaceutical and fossil-fuel industries.

Article 3

- 3.1. The YHO's headquarters are in Ljubljana. In any legal documents, YHO will always use the registered name, i.e. International Youth Health Organization.

Article 4

- 4.1. YHO has its own stamp that represents the logo in red. It is rectangular and has a ratio of 3,5 cm x 5 cm. It contains the inscription »Mednarodna zveza za zdravje mladih – International Youth Health Organization«.

Article 5

- 5.1. YHO is a legal entity of private law.
- 5.2. The Legal Representative of the association is responsible for its legal work and finance planning and implementation. The Executive Board appoints the Legal Representative and has to be confirmed at the General Assembly.
- 5.3. In accordance with article 10.2, only a member of a Full member can become a Legal Representative of the network. Full members may propose their members to the Executive Board to be appointed as a Legal Representative. The proposed candidates have to fulfil the conditions to take over the role of a Legal Representative, as are determined by the legal order of the Republic of Slovenia.
- 5.4. In case of the Legal Representative's absence, the President will serve as a substitute, based on the Legal Representative's permission for concrete actions.

II. AIM, GOALS and TASKS

Article 6

6.1. YHO's aim is to:

- 6.1.1. Raise the interest of youth organizations across Europe in:
 - a. Health policies.
 - b. Project work on health related topics.
 - c. Youth research in the field of health and prevention of non-communicable diseases, including mental health.
- 6.1.2. Place the health issue higher on national and international agendas of governments and local communities.
- 6.1.3. Be a relevant actor in the field of health policies in Europe.
- 6.1.4. Rely on evidence-based data on health related topics.
- 6.1.5. Be a generator of scientific data for the field of youth and health.

6.2. YHO's goals are to:

- 6.2.1. To have at least one member in every European Union country (primarily) and the rest of Europe (secondarily).
- 6.2.2. Become and remain a relevant interlocutor for local, national and international institutions in the field of health policies and youth.
- 6.2.3. Carry out activities, which will be regularly confirmed by YHO's working bodies.
- 6.2.4. Achieve and execute YHO's aims.

Article 7

- 7.1. To achieve its aims and goals, YHO carries out the following local and international activities in the field of youth, health-related projects, research and advocacy:
- a. International, national and local seminars.
 - b. International youth exchanges.
 - c. Study visits to promote good practices among the members.
 - d. Issuing publications on topics mentioned in points 7.1. a, b, c.

- e. Conferences, especially with the aim of raising awareness on the importance of activities in the field of health and youth, and policy on health.
 - f. Preparing documents on youth health and similar areas that youth organizations are working on.
 - g. Training courses to develop skills and competences of members of the network members.
 - h. Preparatory meetings to organize the above mentioned activities.
 - i. Public events that aim to increase the recognition of the network and its work.
- 7.2. Activities of YHO are contained in the Work Plan adopted by the General Assembly.
- 7.3. YHO does not carry out profit-making activities, but it can make surplus, that must be reinvested in YHO's activities.

III. MEMBERSHIP

Article 8

- 8.1. YHO has three types of membership:
- 8.1.1. Full members – an association or federation of associations (hereinafter addressed as organizations) can only become full member if it fulfils all conditions to become a full member.
 - 8.1.2. Associate members – association or federation of associations that wants to join YHO and does not fulfil the conditions to be a full member yet.
 - 8.1.3. Observing members – organizations that work for young people but don't meet the conditions in Articles 9.3, 9.4 and 9.5.
- 8.2. An organization can become a full member of YHO after one year of being an associate member.
- 8.3. An organization can become a member of YHO after signing the membership statement.

8.4. Membership applications of all membership types are considered by the YHO's General Assembly.

Article 9

9.1. YHO membership is voluntary.

9.2. An organization can become an YHO member if:

- a. It has defined in its basic act that it works in the youth field (necessarily) and the field of reduction of harmful alcohol use (not necessarily).
- b. Its highest body adopts a resolution to become a member of the YHO.
- c. It accepts YHO's constitution and commits the association to abide by it.
- d. It confirms that it is not affiliated to the alcohol nor tobacco industry.
- e. When applying for YHO membership an organisation has to submit a proof that the above mentioned conditions have been accepted and a signed statement of commitment to abide YHO's constitution.

9.3. Conditions for attaining the associate membership in YHO are:

- 9.3.1. To have both – local and national outreach.
- 9.3.2. The candidate has to be a youth-led organization with its membership and leadership within the age limits of 15 and 30. Upon application the candidate organization must submit a signed statement that it fulfils this condition.
- 9.3.3. To have at least one »active commitment« in the field of youth health. »Active commitment« is a project or activity of an YHO member, which proves the association is active in the YHO's field of action.

9.4 Conditions for attaining the full membership in YHO are all conditions specified in 9.2 and 9.3 and at least one year of associate membership status in YHO.

9.4.1 If the candidate for membership is an association, it is required to have at least 100 members (persons).

9.4.2 If the candidate for membership is a federation of associations, it is required to have at least 5 members – associations with together at least 100 members (persons).

9.5 Conditions for keeping full or associate membership of YHO:

9.5.1 The same points included under 9.3.

9.5.2 In case an existing full member doesn't have at least one »active commitment« at the time of the General Assembly, it is a requirement to obtain one within three months after it.

9.6 YHO's General Assembly at its first possible meeting revises the membership application and confirms if the organization fulfils conditions in articles 9.2, 9.3, 9.4 or 9.5.

Article 10

10.1. YHO observing and associate members' rights and duties are to:

- a. Help create and execute YHO's programme.
- b. Function accordingly to the YHO constitution.
- c. Pay a yearly fee if determined by the General Assembly each year.
- d. Have proposing rights at the General Assembly.

10.2 YHO full members' rights and duties are the same as mentioned in 10.1 and additionally to:

- a. Participate in YHO bodies.
- b. To oversee the material and financial business of YHO.
- c. Elect its representatives in YHO bodies.
- d. Have voting rights in the General Assembly.

10.3 The yearly fee differs for full, associate and observing members.

- a. The General Assembly has the authority to waive the fee in case a member organization is not able to afford it.

Article 11

11.1. YHO membership is lost:

- a. With a voluntary resignation after a resolution from the member's highest body.
- b. If the member ceases to exist as a legal person.
- c. With expulsion based on a resolution by the YHO General Assembly's decision, in case an YHO member violates the constitution or fundamental directions of YHO activities.
- d. If a full member of YHO is not present in more than two consecutive General Assemblies. In this matter, full member can be granted an associate membership, but needs to request the change of its type of membership before the third consecutive General Assembly. If a full member does not request this change of membership, the General Assembly makes an ascertainment decision on its loss of membership.
- e. If on regular checking basis performed by the Executive Board the conditions for full or associate membership stated in the point 9.5 are not met.

11.2. The membership criteria are monitored by the Executive Board, which also determines, whether the conditions for the loss of membership apply. Final decisions about membership loss are adopted by the YHO General Assembly.

11.3. Exceptionally in case of the voluntary resignation of the member and the dissolution of a member organisation, which is confirmed by the YHO's Executive Board, the General Assembly is only informed about it.

Article 12

12.1. YHO also has honorary members.

12.2. Honorary members of YHO are individuals or organizations with the credit for the development and activity of YHO or its working field.

12.3. The YHO General Assembly, based on YHO members' and Executive Board's suggestions, appoints honorary members.

12.4. Honorary members do not have rights and duties, but they are allowed to participate in YHO's meetings.

IV. ORGANIZATION

Article 13

13.1. YHO members are associations and federations of associations:

- a. Working for youth wellbeing.
- b. Promoting public health.
- c. Encouraging and developing cooperation among associations and its members.

13.2. YHO members should not receive funding or be associated in any way with alcohol or tobacco industry.

Article 14

14.1. YHO can establish institutes and other specific organizational forms needed for the implementation of its projects independently or with other institutions.

V. YHO BODIES

Article 15

15.1. YHO collective bodies are:

- a. The General Assembly;
- b. The Executive Board;
- c. The Monitoring Committee.

- 15.2. YHO individual bodies are:
- a. President;
 - b. Vice-president;
 - c. Regional Coordinator;
 - d. Legal Representative.
- 15.3. All YHO body members' mandate is two years with a handover period of at least 3 months.
- 15.4. Collective body members' can be re-elected to the same position only once.
- 15.5. The convener of each separate body meeting sends out the invitation to the body members at least seven days before the meeting, unless the constitution states otherwise.
- 15.6. The same person cannot hold two different positions within YHO. An exception is the Legal Representative, who can hold a position within Executive Board or Monitoring Committee at the same time.
- 15.7. Not more than one representative from member organization can be elected to YHO bodies.
- 15.8. Not more than two representatives from the same country can be elected either to Executive Board or Monitoring Committee of YHO.
- 15.9. All the meetings of the YHO bodies have to be convened in written or electronic format.

VI. GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Article 16

- 16.1. YHO's highest body is the General Assembly, also referred hereinafter as Assembly; all the other bodies are accountable to it.
- 16.2. The Assembly consists of representatives of all YHO members. Every member appoints one representative to be at the Assembly.
- 16.3. The representative at the Assembly must not be part of another YHO body.

- 16.4. The representatives must be appointed by credential and hold full autonomy regarding any decision on behalf of the organization during the Assembly.

Article 17

- 17.1. The Assembly's competences are to:
- a. Make decisions about the Assembly's meeting agenda.
 - b. Adopt the constitution and other general acts, if other YHO bodies are not responsible for them.
 - c. Adopt programme directions and reports from YHO bodies.
 - d. Adopt the yearly report, financial plan and work programme for the next year.
 - e. Elect and dismiss members of the YHO bodies.
 - f. Elect and dismiss the YHO President and Vice-presidents.
 - g. Confirms the Legal Representative.
 - h. Decide if the applicants for membership fulfil all the conditions.
 - i. Discuss and decide on directions on acquisition, management or alienation of real estate.
 - j. Discuss and decide on all the other important YHO matters.
 - k. Decide on ceasing YHO's activity.
 - l. Decide on complaints regarding resolutions of YHO bodies.
 - m. Appoint honorary members.

Article 18

- 18.1. The YHO Assembly elects and dismisses YHO's bodies every two years.
- 18.2. The YHO Executive Board convenes the Assembly meeting at least once a year. The convener has to send the invitation for the annual Assembly to the members at least 45 days before the Assembly meeting.

Article 19

- 19.1. The YHO Executive Board can convene extraordinary meetings of the Assembly on its own initiative or on an initiative by one third of YHO's Assembly members and deals only with the issue the meeting was convened for. The Executive Board must convene a meeting in 45 days from the day they have received the initiative, otherwise the persons who have submitted the initiative can call for a meeting themselves.
- 19.2. In extraordinary circumstances the YHO President or the Executive Board can convene a correspondence Assembly, meaning the members do not convene in person and can use a correspondence vote to decide on a matter for which the Assembly was convened. The Assembly deals only with the issue the meeting was convened for. A correspondence Assembly must be convened in 14 days since the official decision of the Executive Board.
- 19.3. For calls, quorum and resolutions validity the same rules apply as for the ordinary Assembly meetings.
- 19.4. All YHO bodies are invited to the Assembly.

Article 20

- 20.1. The Assembly meeting is chaired by the President and one of the Vice-presidents as a vice-chair. The Secretary General is the secretary of the meeting. In case of absence of the President the meeting is chaired by the vice-chair. In case of absence of the Secretary General the President appoints the secretary of the meeting within the participants of the Assembly.
- 20.2. The Assembly has reached quorum if more than half of the YHO's members' representatives are present at the Assembly.
 - a. If the Assembly hasn't reached quorum, there is a waiting time of half an hour, after that, it can continue if the quorum reaches at least one third of the members' representatives.

- 20.3. The Assembly resolutions are valid when they are accepted by a simple majority of the votes in the room.
- 20.4. When the Assembly is presenting resolutions on adoption or amendments of the YHO constitution.
 - a. They will be voted upon by a two-thirds majority.
 - b. At least half the members of the General Assembly have to be present.
 - c. Amendments should be submitted to the Executive Board at least 3 weeks before the GA.
 - d. Amendments of the Constitution should be sent to all members and members' representatives at the Assembly at least one week before the Assembly taking place.
- 20.5. Voting in the Assembly is public, unless the Assembly decides otherwise.
- 20.6. The Assembly decides on the voting method for elections.
- 20.7. When the Assembly hasn't reached quorum, the representatives can discuss the topics, but they cannot adopt resolutions.

Article 21

- 21.1. Permanent organizational structures in YHO are:
 - a. Committee for youth research.
 - b. Committee for the development of youth work in the health field and training.
 - c. Committee for the development of health policy and advocacy.
- 21.2. Every permanent structure has up to 5 members:
 - a. 1 Vice-president as a coordinator of the respective committee.
 - b. 3 members who are appointed by the Executive Board after an open call, with a mandate of 2 years.

- c. One Secretariat representative.
- 21.3. Tasks of individual organizational structures are reviewed by the Executive Board at least once a year in accordance with YHO Work Plan.
- 21.4. Candidates to be members of permanent organizational structures must be validated by the sending organization.
- 21.5. Apart from the elected members, interested volunteers can also be invited to permanent organizational structure meetings. The volunteers can present their opinion at the meetings and have the right to be informed about the work carried out.
- 21.6. The Executive Board holds the power to dismiss the appointed members of the committees.

Article 22

- 22.1. The YHO Assembly can establish other organizational structures (committees, commissions, networks, groups), through which the YHO members can work on common interests and coordinate work on separate specific fields. Those can be permanent or temporary.
- 22.2. Organizational structures are not legal persons and are not YHO bodies, but they work according to YHO constitution.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Article 23

- 23.1. The Executive Board is responsible for making decisions and coordinating tasks to fulfil the YHO's programme between two General Assembly meetings.
- a. It is accountable to the YHO Assembly for its work.
 - b. It is convened and chaired by the YHO President or the Vice-president in the President's absence.
- 23.2. The Executive Board consists of:
- a. President,
 - b. Vice-president for youth research,

- c. Vice-president for the development of youth work on health field and training,
- d. Vice-president health policy and advocacy,
- e. Three Regional Coordinators.

Article 24

- 24.1. Executive Board's tasks are to:
- a. Implement the YHO Assembly's decisions.
 - b. Prepare the programme and coordinate the work of the permanent organizational structures.
 - c. Carry out tasks from the YHO's yearly work programme and monitor its development.
 - d. Convene Assembly meetings and prepare materials for that purpose.
 - e. Create proposals for the yearly report, financial plan and work plan for the following year; to be sent to members at least 30 days prior to the General Assembly, to be adopted,
 - f. Propose candidates for distinction awards.
 - g. Be in charge of creating job positions for Secretary Members and the corresponding salary based on YHO's needs.
 - h. Be responsible for the creation of the YHO budget.
 - i. Design a strategy for tender procedures and selection of YHO professional collaborators.
 - j. Peacefully resolve conflicts and give sanctions due to violations.
 - k. Leads the procedures and pronounces the sanctions according to the disciplinary regulations.
 - l. Decides on the address of the association.
 - m. Appoint the Secretary General and the Legal Representative.

Article 25

25.1. The Executive Board can appoint working bodies and commissions within a body if necessary to carry out its tasks.

Article 26

26.1. The Executive Board has physical meetings at least twice a year.

a. The meeting is convened by the President or by one of the Vice-presidents in case of President's absence.

b. An Executive Board meeting can take place using new technologies. The same rules apply as for a physical meeting.

26.2. The Executive Board has reached quorum, when more than half of the members are present.

26.3. Interested active volunteers can also be invited to Executive Board's meetings or its working bodies' meetings.

a. They are entitled to present their opinions at the meeting but hold no decision making power.

Article 27

27.1. Violations, which should be dealt with by the Executive Board, are the following:

- a. Violations of the constitution.
- b. Reckless behaviour of any YHO member.
- c. Not executing the resolutions of the YHO bodies.
- d. Actions that may harm YHO's reputation in any way.

27.2. Within three months after the election, the EB accepts or amends the disciplinary regulations. The network members are introduced to the disciplinary regulations on the first possible General Assembly.

Article 28

28.1. The sanctions the Executive Board can state after the procedure according to the regulations are:

- a. Warning.
- b. Public warning.
- c. Expulsion.

28.2. The affected member can appeal against the Executive Board decision 15 days before the Assembly, which decides on the matter.

Article 29

29.1. The Executive Board calls for candidates to all the bodies and organizational structures' positions at least 45 days before the current members finish their mandate.

29.2. The Executive Board approves candidatures and informs the members about the approving procedure.

29.3. The Executive Board presents the candidates to the YHO Assembly for adoption.

SECRETARIAT

Article 30

30.1. The Secretariat:

30.1.1. Is a permanent organizational body of the YHO Executive Board.

30.1.2. Is not an independent body and it answers to the Executive Board.

30.1.3. Is appointed by the Executive Board based on the current needs.

30.1.4. It includes the YHO Secretary General who leads the Secretariat and representatives from YHO member organizations that are confirmed by the Executive Board.

a. As a general rule, the representatives of the secretaries are appointed to the fields related to the working fields of the Executive Board.

b. If needed, volunteers can join.

30.1.5. The Secretary General works on a paid position in the YHO headquarters in Slovenia.

30.1.6. The Secretary General is appointed by the YHO Executive Board, following an Open Call for applications.

30.2. The Secretariat meets when necessary.

30.3. The Secretariat assures the development of the YHO programme.

PRESIDENT, VICE-PRESIDENTS AND REGIONAL COORDINATORS

Article 31

31.1. The President is elected every two years and has the following tasks:

a. Convenes and chairs the Assembly and the Executive Board.

b. Represents the organization.

c. Carries out other tasks authorized by the Assembly, bodies and the constitution.

d. Reports her or his work to the Assembly.

31.2. Vice-presidents:

a. Are members of the Executive Board.

b. Are elected by the Assembly for a two-year period.

c. Each Vice-president leads a committee.

d. Report their work to the Assembly.

31.3 Regional Coordinators:

a. YHO has three Regional Coordinators, who are members of the Executive Board.

b. Are elected by the Assembly for a two-year period.

c. Each Regional Coordinator is responsible for their respective YHO region, which are proposed by EB and confirmed by the Assembly.

d. Report their work to the Assembly.

31.4 At the first Executive Board meeting, the Executive Board members elect a representative among the Vice-presidents to substitute the President in her or his absence.

SECRETARY GENERAL

Article 32

32.1. The Secretary General:

a. Is appointed by the Executive Board, to which he or she also answers to.

b. Represents the association, within the limits of the mandate, given by the Executive Board.

c. Leads YHO's professional work.

d. Coordinates the work of the Secretariat and organizational structures and connects YHO's members.

e. Takes care of the information flow inside the organization.

f. Promotes activities to the public.

g. Performs other tasks and executes the mandates specified in the constitution and accepted by YHO bodies.

LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE

Article 33

33.1 The Legal Representative:

a. Is appointed by the Executive Board, to which he or she also answers to.

b. Is the legal representative of the organization and is confirmed for this position by the General Assembly, which also dismisses him or her from this position.

c. Legally represents the association independently and with unlimited capacity.

d. Is responsible for financial and material related tasks.

e. Is the one who decrees and executes all financial and material tasks of YHO.

f. Signs contracts of employments and other work contracts.

33.2 An individual becomes the Legal Representative on the day of confirmation by the Assembly.

33.3 If the Assembly doesn't confirm the appointed Legal Representative, the Executive Board has 30 days to appoint a new Legal representative. Then the Executive Board needs to convene a correspondence Assembly, which votes upon confirmation of the Legal Representative, in 14 days since the appointment.

MONITORING COMMITTEE

Article 34

- 34.1. The YHO Monitoring Committee is a control body.
- 34.2. The Monitoring Committee monitors:
- a. The programme's execution.
 - b. YHO body's work.
 - c. The administration of property.
 - d. YHO's financial and material business.
- 34.3. The Monitoring committee reports to the Assembly.
- 34.4. The Monitoring Committee:
- 34.4.1. Consists of 3 members elected by the Assembly.
 - 34.4.2. Is coordinated by the Monitoring Committee Coordinator, elected by the Monitoring Committee members themselves.
 - 34.4.3. Meets at least once a year.
 - 34.4.4. Carries out internal supervision of YHO:
 - a. Revision of the extent, truthful display of property and business.
 - b. Revision of the business books and yearly report.
 - c. If the surplus of the income over expenses is used to fulfil YHO aims and goals or for carrying out non-profit activity as determined by the statute.
 - d. Its findings are reported to the Assembly before accepting the yearly report.
- 34.5. The meetings have reached quorum if more than half of the members are present, and resolutions are approved, if more than half of the present members' vote for them. Monitoring Committee members cannot be simultaneously members of other bodies.

- 34.6. As a general rule the members of the Monitoring committee should have worked for an YHO body other than the monitoring committee in the past.

VI. FINANCIAL AND MATERIAL MEANS

Article 35

- 35.1. YHO is the owner of the real or moveable property of YHO.

Article 36

- 36.1. YHO's sources of income are:
- a. Membership fees.
 - b. Revenues from candidacy on public tenders and institutional grants.
 - c. Gifts, bequests, sponsors and donor contributions.
 - d. Fundraised money.
 - e. Revenues from using YHO's property and from its own activities.
- 36.2. YHO does not accept sponsorship or donations from alcohol or tobacco industry or other companies that have connections to them.

Article 37

- 37.1. If YHO with its activities creates surplus of income over expenses, the surplus will be used to fulfil the YHO's aims and goals.

Article 38

- 38.1. YHO can own real estate property and other material goods.
- a. The Executive Board will report to the Assembly on these properties.

38.2. The Assembly decides on the acquisition, renting and disposal of the real estate property.

Article 39

39.1. YHO guarantees data of its financial and material business according to the Regulations on accountancy, accepted by the Executive Board.

- a. Regulations on accountancy have to be in accordance with the law and accountancy standards for organizations.

Article 40

40.1. YHO deals with its finances in accordance with the programme and yearly financial plans, accepted by the Assembly.

Article 41

41.1. Financial and material documents are signed by the Legal Representative, and in his or her absence the President. Financial and material business has to be in accordance with valid regulations in this field.

VIII. DISTINCTIONS AND AWARDS

Article 42

42.1. YHO grants various distinctions, suggested by the Executive Board and confirmed by the Assembly.

42.2. Proposals for distinctions can come from the members, YHO bodies and all organizational bodies of YHO according to special regulations. The Assembly confirms the proposals and awards the distinctions.

IX. PUBLICITY

Article 43

43.1. YHO's activity is public.

43.2. Publicity is guaranteed by:

- a. Inviting media representatives to meetings.
- b. Distributing material and other information on the network's work.
- c. Holding press conferences.
- d. Regularly informing the members on decisions and resolutions by the YHO bodies and work outcomes.

43.3. The Secretary General is responsible for ensuring publicity of YHO.

X. TERMINATION OF YHO ACTIVITY

Article 44

44.1. The YHO ceases to exist:

- a. If decided by the two-thirds of the Assembly.
- b. By merging with or acquisition by other organizations' network in the field of alcohol and youth.
- c. In case of bankruptcy.
- d. On the basis of court decision.
- e. On the basis of a law itself.

44.2. In case of termination due to an Assembly decision, the unused assets, obtained from institutional budgets, will be returned to the corresponding institution. The remaining property will be transferred to the YHO members after dividing it in equal amounts, unless the General Assembly determines otherwise.

XI. TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Article 45

- 45.1. This constitution was accepted by the YHO General Assembly at its meeting on 17. 12. 2018.
- 45.2. YHO starts working in accordance with the new constitution immediately after the adoption.

Article 46

- 46.1. All other YHO legal activities and its implementation need to be consistent with this constitution within six months of its acceptance.

Urša Šetina
Secretary General

Lukas Galkus
President